Question 1: 0.5 points for the search query used. 0.5 points for the name of the author and a screenshot of the google search results.

Question 2: 0.5 points for a screenshot of the details found about the XSS vulnerability in Calcium. 0.5 points for a screenshot of the google search performed to find websites that use the calcium software.

Question 3: 0.5 points for the name of the person located in Carson, CA. 0.5 points for screenshots of the recon-ng tool used and a brief explanation about the process used to find the answer.

Question 4: 1 point for filling out the table, 1 point for screenshots and explanations of commands/processes used to find the answer.

Question 5: 1 point for filling out the table, 1 point for screenshots and explanations of commands/processes used to find the answer.

Question 6: 1 point for a screenshot of the results, 1 point for an explanation about the process used to write a script/modify the given script to reach the answer.

Question 7: 0.5 points for a screenshot of the Wayback machine results, 0.25 points for a brief explanation of how the Wayback machine was used, 0.25 points for a comment about how the Access Adelaide website looked in 2009.

Question 8: 0.5 points for a screenshot of the answer, 0.5 points for an explanation about how the answer was retrieved.

Question 9: 0.5 points for a screenshot of the answer, 0.5 points for an explanation about how the answer was retrieved.